

A WORLD OF FLAVOR
 AT DISNEY SPRINGS

by TYLER MCNULTY & DOMINICK TUCCIARONE

DISNEY SPRINGS IS HOME TO SOME OF THE FINEST RETAIL, DINING AND ENTERTAINMENT VENUES IN THE WORLD.

With its hundreds of luxurious shops, live entertainment on nearly every corner and more than 50 food and beverage locations, visiting Disney Springs is a must for any Walt Disney World Resort Guest. “Disney Springs prides itself on being one of the best destinations for shopping and entertainment,” said Perry Crawley, director of Food & Beverage and Operations at Disney Springs. “But what makes our property stand out is the incredible cultural diversity that inspires the cuisine of our award-winning chefs and restaurants.”

Six of the fine dining establishments at Disney Springs boast menus created by James Beard Award-winning chefs, including Art Smith, Wolfgang Puck and Masaharu

Morimoto. Created by world-renowned chefs specifically for their Disney Springs location, all the menus draw upon the chefs’ mastery and experience to provide an unforgettable dining experience for our Guests.

We also have our own Disney chefs at locations such as Amorette’s Patisserie and D-Luxe Burger, who provide delicious, one-of-a-kind Disney dining experiences. “I’ve had the pleasure of working at Walt Disney World Resort as a pastry chef for 25 years and now lead the incredibly creative team at Amorette’s Patisserie,” said pastry chef Yoly Lazo. “I love working at Disney Springs. The chefs here come from all cultures and backgrounds and bring to life delicious culinary creations with authentic flavors.”

COMFORT FOOD YOU'LL CRAVE

At Chef Art Smith's Homecomin', chef Art Smith, a Florida native and two-time James Beard Award winner, serves his famous comfort food prepared with fresh, local ingredients. As they enjoy delicacies such as Art's famous fried chicken, diners have a view of the restaurant's open kitchen or, if they're lucky, a view of the springs from their table in the restaurant's closed-in porch.

A CULINARY JOURNEY ACROSS ASIA

Japanese master chef Masaharu Morimoto offers his unique take on Chinese, Japanese and Korean dishes, from sushi to noodle bowls, for an unforgettable dining experience at Morimoto Asia.

CASUAL CALIFORNIAN CUISINE

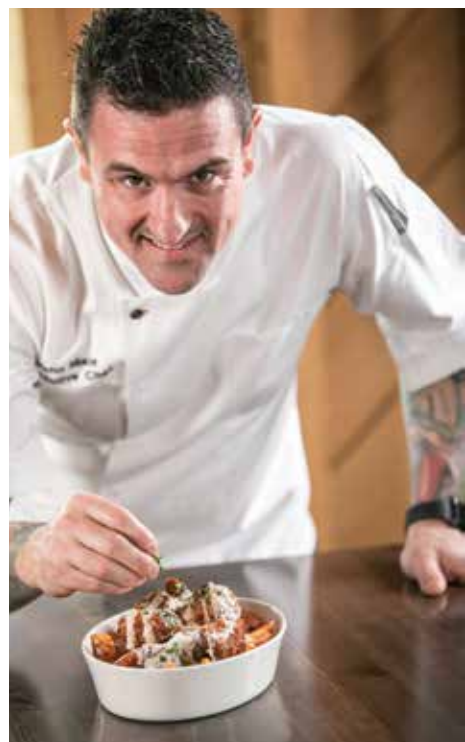

Chef Wolfgang Puck brings California's laid-back dining experience to Florida diners at Wolfgang Puck Bar & Grill, with a Mediterranean-influenced menu that includes Puck's signature dishes and unique takes on classic comfort foods.

A PERFECT PAIRING

Master Sommelier George Miliotes offers 130 wines and expertly pairs them with delicious dishes from chef Ron Rupert, such as skirt steak, grilled octopus or grilled whole Greek sea bass at Wine Bar George, the only Sommelier-led wine bar in Florida.

A HIDDEN GEM

Below Maria & Enzo's is Enzo's Hideaway, a prohibition-era bar inspired by Florida's secretive "rum-running" past that offers cocktails and the largest selection of rum and scotch at Disney Springs. The bar also offers a variety of meats and cheeses, pasta and other Italian-crafted dishes.

SOMETHING SWEET

Amorette's Patisserie, an artsy yet sophisticated pastry shop located in Town Center, sells goodies such as éclairs, New York-style cheesecake and cookies, making it the perfect place to grab dessert.

THE ALL-AMERICAN

Satisfy your burger cravings at D-Luxe Burger, a ranch-inspired eatery that serves milk shakes, fresh cut fries, house-made dipping sauces and, of course, signature burgers.

Want to hear the best part about dining at Disney Springs? Most locations offer a Cast discount with a valid Disney ID. For a complete list of discounts, visit DisneyCastExperience.com.