

JOHN M. FORBES

Journalist • Photojournalist

+1 (574) 310-7396

Jonathan.forbes877@gmail.com

1221 W. Oak St., Denton, TX, 76201

Johnforbesjournalism.com

Summary

Highly passionate and motivated journalist with research and reporting experience looking to cover important and essential news. Previously worked for the North Texas Daily as a reporter then news editor and recently finished an internship in the United States Senate. Has extensive knowledge on the reporting process and government institutions/process and skilled in visual media as well.

Education

University of North Texas • 2021 - Present

Bachelor's degrees:

- Political science
- Digital/print journalism

Current GPA: 3.642

Expected graduation: May 2026

Research conducted:

Hostage taking and hostage diplomacy; an analysis

- Research poster presented at the Midwest Political Science Association conference in Chicago • April 4, 2024.

Skills

- News writing
 - Breaking news
 - investigative news
- Editing
- Communication
- Research
- Organization
- Leadership

Certifications

- Social & Behavioral Research certification through the Collaborative Institutional Training Initiative (Citi) program.

Professional Experience

News editor

North Texas Daily | May 2024 - December 2024

- Led and organized news coverage for the largest writing section at the North Texas Daily.
 - Coverage included:
 - City politics and government affairs
 - Human interest stories
 - Higher education and events pertinent to the university
- Coordination with other members of the editorial board in editing, coordinating large coverage projects and the creation of a cohesive weekly edition.
- Some articles published during my tenure include stories:
 - Investigating multiple instances of sexualized photos of women taken at the university's gym and published in an online forum
 - Investigating the city's affordable housing program, finding that their metric to determine affordability is based on much wealthier areas
 - Covering the university's new restrictive guidelines to faculty research to comply with anti-DEI legislation.

Personal reporting

North Texas Daily | Jan. 2024 - Dec. 2024

- My reporting includes coverage of breaking news, higher education, city government and politics, national issues, local and national political races and investigative pieces.
- My clips include:
 - A story uncovering the UNT College of Education's secretive unilateral scrubbing of DEI from course curricula
 - A column series entitled "Local Lens" which analyzed how presidential policies on various topics would affect Denton and Texas locally
 - A story spotlighting abruptly fired employees after a franchise owner of Alamo Drafthouse filed for bankruptcy and fired all of their employees without notice.
- To see more of my clips, visit my website: Johnforbesjournalism.com

Intern for United States Senator John Curtis (R-UT)

U.S. Senate | Jan. 27, 2025 - April 11, 2025

- Primary correspondent for constituents
 - Organize and manage the large influx of calls, emails, and physical mail.
 - Write letters on various issues to be sent to constituents via automatic reply/emailing en masse.
- Research for legislative assistants
 - Conducted research into bills, policies, reporters, topics, etc. to help the legislative aids in the office.