

Lost In Dimensions Community Event

Players interact with the in-game character CAPS through social media channels in a choose-the-adventure style event featuring character dialogue and player response options. Related to the PvE “Realities” exploring various timelines in the latest game season. I wrote the event article, character dialogue, and audience response options.

An old-school treasure hunter with unique time-travelling tech, CAPS talks like he’s straight out of the 19th Century (because he is!)

Meet CAPS: time traveler, alternate dimension aficionado, and antique scuba diving gear enthusiast. He joined the Riftwake in Issue #3: Worlds Beyond, but he’s been here before... just a couple of centuries back — long story. GRAIL never doubted his return, and we’re glad to have an ole veteran back onboa— wait, where’d he go? He was right there!

LOST IN DIMENSIONS!

CAPS is aboard the Riftwake, but also not. His long travels across Realities have caused a stutter in the timeways, and his past self is still fighting through time and space. That’s the gist of it — he gave us a long, well-elucidated explanation, but it went over our heads.

Help CAPS wherever he may appear across HAWKED social communities, including Discord, Facebook, and X/Twitter, to help preserve the timeline. Vote in polls to help guide him back to the Riftwake in Lost in Dimensions, a ‘choose-your-adventure’ style event, running until November 24.

If you choose well and save CAPS, Renegades will get a free Starfarer Outfit (Headwear, Chestwear, and Legwear), or equal GE-0 Cash if already owned.

Let’s get timey-wimey, Renegades!

Poll #1

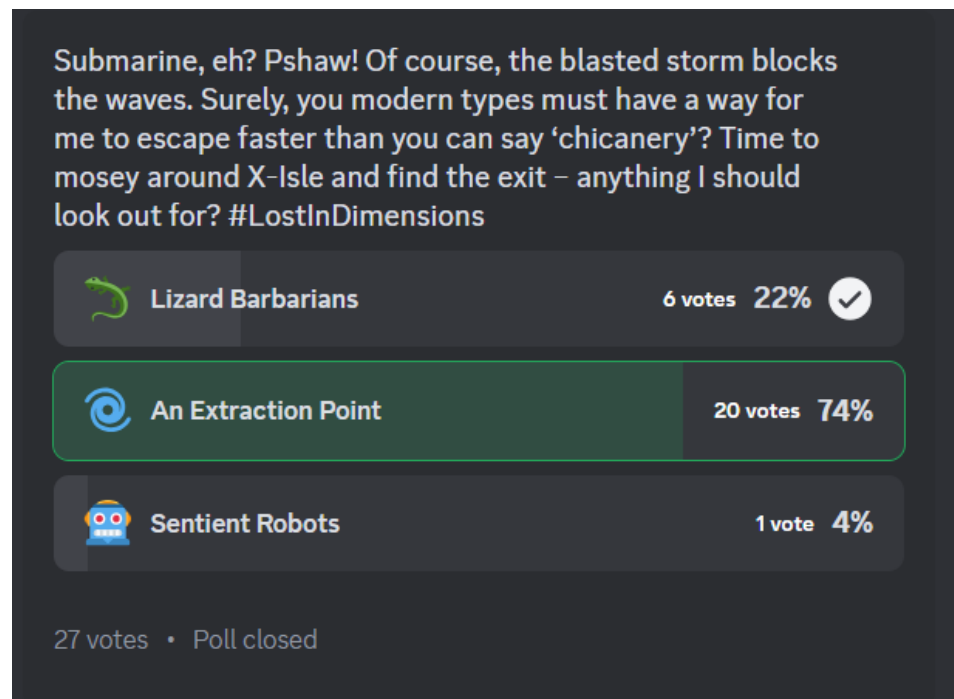

Hello... is this GRAIL? Confounded dimensions! My temporal coordinates for the Riftwake are entirely incorrect. But I haven’t the foggiest what the Riftwake even IS in your future. Might you assist with a clue, Renegades?

Hah, the old “give it a good whack” technique got the Extraction Point whirring! High time I absquatulate and rejoin my home Reality. How’d the saying go? It’s not about the times, but the alternate friends you meet along the way.

The Starfarer Outfit was commissioned for dab hands at dimension-faring. I can think of no league of treasure-hunters more deserving, Renegades — consider it a token of my thanks for your guidance across the static!
