POPLIPPS: Plus One by One Model Management CEO Scott Lipps.

By day, New York-based Scott Lipps is the CEO and founder of One Model Management, but by night he lives a life most of us could only dream about.

What began as a Tumblr blog documenting his jet-set adventures with models and music stars quickly amassed a 300,000-plus strong following, and unwittingly became the basis of his future coffee-table worthy tome, POPLIPPS: Plus One.

Live vicariously through the pages as Lipps travels and parties around the globe—his well-timed photos documenting a rare, behind-the-scenes glimpse into a world where fashion and rock 'n' roll collides.

From the foreword by Lipp's good friend and band-mate Courtney Love, to beautiful images of Helena Christiansen, Alexander Wang and Florence Welch, each page is a pure celebration of celebrity, fashion, music and photography.

"This book was a labor of love and it was easy to get inspired being around all the great talent I had to shoot over the last two years," says Lipps. "Supermodels, musicians, actors, and behind-the-scenes fashion, not to mention my life with Courtney Love, too."

We may never party with models, but now at least we can feel like we were there.

POPLIPPS: Plus One is available at Barnes and Noble, Amazon and Fred Segal L.A.
