Arriving early yesterday afternoon, Schwartz and Wickham were welcomed to a private cabana where they enjoyed drinks and greeted eager fans. The duo mingled with guests, posed for photos and enjoyed shots before heading behind the bar around to mix up cocktails and pour drinks for a packed house.

The Pool House buzzed with excitement as fans surrounded the bar, eager for selfies and drinks made by the reality TV stars. Schwartz and Wickham spent about 45 minutes bartending before returning poolside to continue hanging with fans and enjoying the summer afternoon. Both stars stayed until early evening, capping off a memorable day filled with fun, flair and Bravo fanfare.

The afternoon also featured live entertainment and DJ sets from Jessica Zaper, DJ Nvious, Spitz and DJ Danny.

Boasting some of the best views in downtown San Diego, The Pool House is a premier rooftop lounge, embodying the essence of the Southern California lifestyle. The indoor/outdoor space offers an elevated poolside experience with daybed and cabana rentals, VIP table service and casual, open seating.
