

Subject: An Intimate Evening with Hundred Acre + Marisi: 5 Courses of Luxury in The Lemon Room

Hi X,

On Wednesday, December 11 at 6 p.m., Marisi will host their second wine dinner with the world famous Hundred Acre Wine. This exclusive dinner will feature wines from none other than winemaker Jayson Woodbridge of Hundred Acre, paired alongside a spectacular five-course meal crafted by Executive Chef, Cameron Ingle.

This intimate affair will include some of Woodbridge's current releases and back vintage blockbusters pulled from Isidoro's private cellar. Isidoro represents the "isi" in Marisi. He was the Grandfather of the family behind Marisi and spent many decades collecting the world's best wines. His extensive collection includes rare Hundred Acre wines you can't find anywhere else, and the menu for this dinner will showcase the wines that he loved the most.

Here's a sneak peek at some of the dishes and pairings included in this evening's five-course menu:

Oysters + Caviar | Summer Dreams 'Walking on Venice Beach', Sauvignon Blanc, Sonoma, 2021

White Truffle Cacio e Pepe | Hundred Acre, Cabernet Sauvignon, Ark Vineyard, Napa Valley, 2019

Hearth Roasted Lamb Chops | Hundred Acre 'Deep Time' Cabernet Sauvignon, Kayli Morgan Vineyard, Napa Valley, 2014

This experience is $1,000 per guest, including tax and gratuity. No shows and cancellations less than three days in advance will be nonrefundable.

There are only 16 seats available for this dinner, so don't miss out on this one-of-a-kind evening. Book your reservation here. Please let me know if you have any questions on this experience; I'd be happy to help.

Thanks for your editorial consideration, and I hope you have a great Thanksgiving week!

Best,

Coralie
