

Kendra Palmer, 80

Kendra Palmer, 80, of Moulton, Ala. Died peacefully at home late Tuesday evening, surrounded by her family and friends. Born March 12, 1944, Kendra dedicated over 35 years to teaching elementary school students, touching countless young lives with her kindness and wisdom.

A University of Alabama alumna, Kendra married her high school sweetheart, Thomas Palmer, in 1965. Together, they raised three children: Michael, Susan, and David. She found immense joy in her role as a mother and grandmother to six grandchildren, always placing family at the center of her life.

Kendra was an active community member, volunteering at the local food bank and participating in church and garden club activities. Her garden was a neighborhood treasure, reflecting her love for nature and community.

Preceded in death by her husband, parents, and sister, Kendra is survived by her children, grandchildren, and brother, Robert Williams. The family extends gratitude to all who supported them during her final days.

A celebration of life will be held at Moulton First Baptist Church on Saturday, June 22, at 11 a.m., with visitation on Friday, June 21, from 5 to 7 p.m. at Lawrence Funeral Home. Donations may be made to the Moulton Food Bank or Garden Club.
