Copy that's ready to take on the world

As a content creator, I've learned the value of establishing style guides, glossaries, and translator notes early on. Not only does this provide the copywriters with the tools they need to create high quality and consistent texts, but it also aids the translators in adapting the core brand message and tone of voice to their local countries.

I have 10+ years of experience translating German to English in the fields of market research, legal, press, blogs, gaming, and more.

I've also translated numerous Spanish texts and a bit of Korean, too!
