FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 3, 2024

POLLING LOCATIONS FOR SMYRNA AND LA VERGNE TENNESSEE

[Smyrna and La Vergne, Tennessee] – As the nation prepares for the upcoming U.S. Presidential election on Tuesday, November 5, 2024, everyone must remember how important it is to vote, know the different polling locations within your county and the voting start and end time.

It is crucial for eligible voters to participate in this important democratic process. The U.S. Presidential Election is important in ensuring the betterment of our nation and helps our children to grow up in a safe country.

For the residents of Rutherford County, Tennessee, there are 30 polling locations, with seven being in Smyrna and La Vergne. Residents of Rutherford County can find different polling locations by visiting <https://rutherfordcountyttn.gov/voting-centers>.

Polling locations and voting will begin at 7 a.m. and end at 7 p.m. central time.

Last, voters should remember to bring valid photo ID, as required by state law. This can be a driver's license, U.S. Passport, military ID, etc. It is also recommended to review your registration status to avoid any issues on Election Day.

Yours Sincerely,
