

Mariner's Carryall—Your beginning with us

Your very first Valdena piece

As it makes its way to you right now, this moment also makes its way to our hearts.

Every time a customer gets a piece from us, it's our deepest and most desperate dream come true—to make something priceless that's more than just a product: something you'd hold, feel the warmth and the strength that's been seeped into it. And something you'd choose to keep with intention.

Thrilled that your journey began with a canvas tote in deep navy and soft ivory. This day will be branded into our memory and hearts forever.

May it be the first of many beautiful pieces you'll choose to carry through life with you.

5 Times Your Trust

5 times the joy of serving you

Isles

You might not have been keeping count, but we've definitely been.

From the first rose quartz ring you chose... to your fifth, the onyx drop pendant now on its way.

We never take you or the quiet moments you've marked with us for granted.

Each time you return, it says more than any campaign ever could.

Thank you for weaving us into your story. For choosing Isles again.

Here's to five pieces held, and countless more that may yet find you.

A Gift as Thoughtful as You Soon to be held in their hands

Only thoughtful people choose to gift thoughtful things.

You chose a pair with meaning, not just style.

Something that says: I thought of you. I know you. And I wanted this to feel right in your hands.

We hope whoever is receiving this feels the beautiful thought behind your choice.
