Summary

They are a group of college heroes who silently help the society. They always complete tasks when they have time and take rewards to pay for their tuition.

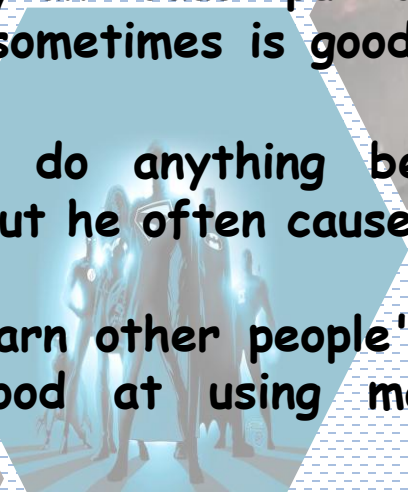

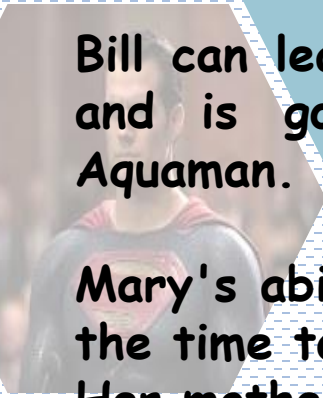

Although sometimes mistakes can be recovered by super powers, and even almost let the government lose a lot of money and cause public outrage, so their evaluated sometimes is good sometimes is bad.

Mark can do anything because he is the skillful and powerful but he often causes troubles.

Bill can learn other people's skills in a period of the time and is good at using many weapons. Bill, his father is Aquaman.

Mary's ability is to control the time, she is free to control the time to reach the future or go back to the past. Her mother is a WonderWoman.

But the only thing they have in common is that they have the ability to inherit some power of their parents.

In the beginning

Superman and Harley Quinn bring little Mark to the tunnel let him to practice his super power Mark didn't control the power and bombed the tunnel.

At this time, Wonder Woman had to go home from the tunnel just after work. When she saw this situation, she knew that Mark was in trouble.

After Wonder Woman rescued them, Mary was in the car and laugh at Mark of this accident.

Because of this accident, their nemesis 'Steven' found that Mark has this powerful ability.

On the next day, Steven talked about yesterday's accident and made Mark and Mary very surprised why Steven would know about it.

After the bell rang, the teacher with Bill, the transfer students into the classroom, everyone focused on the Bill, because his special tattoos of his father.

During the swimming class, Bill showed his natural skills and surprised everyone.

At this time, Mark, who has excellent grades, is jealous. He wants a competition with Bill. Mark has repeatedly lost to Bill. Mark was angry because Steven laugh at him.

When Mary returned to the past, he discovered that Bill's father was a Aquaman and told Mark about it. After this, Mark, Mary and Bill become good friends and always hang out together.

Middle

(After many years, they have been studying in university.) They went out to finished their missions as usual, and when they thought that the mission had ended. Suddenly, Steven appeared. They confused that why Steven appeared over here.

Steven said that was his trap, in order to defeat them and prove that he was smarter than them, when they haven't reacted what happened. Steven's tens of thousands high-tech armies are coming from all directions, and the heroes are struggling for their fight.

In The End

When they were already extreme tiredness, the number of Steven's army was still there, which made them feel disappointed.

At this time their parents appeared because they felt strong energy fluctuations and they immediately rushed over.

After they arrived, they saw that their children couldn't hold on. When they are ready to fight against the army. A bad guy Trump appeared. He controlled the innocent residents and wanted heroes to surrender.

Obviously this strategy works, but heroes know that if they don't do anything many people will get hurt, heroes still fight for peace.

Trump found that the situation was wrong, he ran away and left behind Steven. His army was defeated by the heroes.

They asked why Steven did this. He said that when he was a child, he tried very hard to get a good grades, but always is Mark won the first prize. Later, even though Steven was good at the swimming but he still defeated by the student Bill.

However, he wants to win the recognition of the world. So that's why I will go astray and help Trump fight the heroes.

Why This Movie Needs To Be Made

Don't envy others, even if you don't have the same ability as a hero. By your own efforts, you can still contribute to the world.
