

THANK YOU NOTE

Date: 16th July, 2024

Dear valued clients,

As the Managing Director of Ashtapad by Spacekraft Company, I look back through memory lane and reminisce about the humble start of our construction company, which flourished into a magnanimous, successful business in a span of very little time. It's been a beautiful journey of growth and collaboration. I extend my heartfelt gratitude to all of you for entrusting your sincere trust and loyalty to our company and its promising services.

I am thrilled that our company has always strived to leave no stone unturned in meeting and rising above your expectations and preferences. But this has been possible only because of your unwavering faith and strong belief in the prestige and value of our company. I warmly thank you for the same, with the genuine affirmation that Ashtapad shall tirelessly continue to actualize the vision that we have seen for our beloved construction company.

Your happiness and satisfaction are our utmost priority, and delivering the best craftsmanship and authentic, premium services is our prime responsibility.

We look forward to many more memorable and fulfilling years of serving our esteemed clients, who have partaken a monumental role in building this company to what it is today. Thank you very much. I whole-heartedly appreciate your immense support as it has always stood strong alongside our endeavours.

Warm regards,

Mukesh Jain

Managing Director,

Ashtapad by Spacekraft Construction Company.
