

Exploring the Top Tourist Spots in the Philippines' Aklan Islands

The Philippines will never run out of tourist destinations to offer — and the province of Aklan is the epitome example of this.

Perhaps, you want to find solace in nature, witness the breathtaking landscape, swim in crystal clear water, and be mesmerized by the picturesque sunset. If so, let us unveil Aklan's must-visit tourist spot and discover the beauty of Aklan unfold right before your eyes.

Boracay Island

When the province of Aklan is first mentioned, Boracay Island is a tourist spot that always comes to mind. And it is completely understandable because who wouldn't fall in love with the powdery white sand, breathtaking sunsets, and lush greenery of the island? None at all.

Not to mention that it is also surrounded by the finest hotels in Kalibo Aklan Philippines. That said, you will not only have the chance to enjoy all the beauty that Boracay has to offer but also all the amenities and convenience those hotels can provide you!

Nabas Wind Farm

Just 25 km away from Boracay, another must-visit tourist destination awaits you at Nabas Wind Farm! Escape the hustle and bustle of your daily lives and be comforted by the exquisite scenery of nature and its gigantic wind turbines.

But you will appreciate the place even more after knowing that it is part of a sustainable development to supply renewable energy, especially on the remote island of Aklan ever since 2015.

Liktinon White Rocks

For those of you who want a little adventure while still surrounded by the lush landscape and crystal-clear water, Liktinon White Rocks is the way to go! This eco-tourism site is found in the mountain forest of Madalag, Aklan.

Much better news is, after a long day, the availability of Kalibo Lodging House like Papierus Kalibo will allow you to stay and relax. With their great amenities, you will surely get recharged for another day of unforgettable adventure for the next day.

Ariel's Point

If you are looking for action-filled water activities, Ariel's Point is the perfect tourist spot for you. After all, it wouldn't be considered one of the best diving spots near Boracay without any reason.

Just like you have various options on where to stay, either in the cheapest hotel in Kalibo Aklan or a luxurious one, Ariel's Point also caters to all daring levels with diving platforms at five-meter level, eight-meter level, and a heart-stopping 15 meters high.

Kalibo Cathedral

Kalibo not only offers the finest place to experience the comforting beauty of nature, but it also features other historical attractions as popular as Kalibo Cathedral. Since it was built way back in 1581, visiting the place is like visiting a piece of history.

Even if you're not religious, you can still appreciate the cultural significance of the place and be amazed by the role it plays in the lives of people in Kalibo.

Have the Best Stay at Kalibo!

There is something for everyone at Kalibo. Whether you prefer a relaxing stay around the beach, an intense adventure, or perhaps, a day on memory lane to appreciate the cultural history of the place — they all got you covered.

Even when it comes to accommodation, they have your back! You don't have to stay in a luxurious hotel to have an unforgettable stay, there are numerous Kalibo lodgings that you can opt for. Not only do they offer great amenities, but they're also budget-friendly perfect for everyone's budget.

So make all of your dream vacation into a reality. For a memorable stay, lodge at Papierus Pensionne and have a convenient and memorable stay — all at once!
