Event Conversation

Hey! This is _____. I am a current Belmont University student and wanted to reach out on behalf of the Office of Admissions. I know you signed up for our university's 'Belmont in Seattle' event happening this upcoming Monday, so I wanted to confirm you are still planning on attending the event.

Depending upon answer

Yes :)

That is great to hear! I know this will be a great event, so I am glad you are still planning on attending. Do you have any questions I can answer for you in the meantime?

No :(

I'm sorry to hear that. I will go ahead and cancel your registration. Can I help you with anything else?

Admitted Students

Intro: Hey! This is _____, your admissions counselor from Belmont! I am calling to congratulate you on your acceptance.

If alumni I graduated from Belmont myself and can attest that it was the best decision I have made

We would love to have you as a Bruin. I was wondering if there are any questions, I could answer that would help you call Belmont home?

If not and they are short with you: Okay! Well, if you think of anything, I would be happy to set up a time to chat with myself or a current student! My contact information is ___, and can be found on the admissions

If not but you have hope: Okay! I saw that you are interested in studying insert perspective major, that is such a great program! As an admitted student, you can attend a class in your perspective major to get a feel for the program. Or I would love to encourage you to attend our Be Belmont Day, which is an event we have for admitted students to experience what it would be like to be a Bruin. (If this leads to something, refer to the yes section. If still nothing, refer them to your contact information if they think of anything.)

If yes- here are some helpful resources for answers!

- Accessibility
 - If a student has a disability and is seeking accommodations, this must be established through the office of accessibility services
