

The HENNYMOON

If you want to do more than just party for a night, check out these unique ideas for an unforgettable trip abroad

ADVENTURE IN MALAGA

Sun, sand and tapas, that's what you can expect from a weekend in Malaga. This modern, yet historic city is packed full of majestic wonders that will keep you and your girls entertained all weekend. That's when you aren't taking advantage of its famous nightlife, of course.

But if you and your hens are the active-type, then the Aventura Amazonia Marbella Treetop Park has a fun treat in store for you. Set near to the beach there are 83 treetop challenges including the Tarzan's Leap, an amazing surfboard through the treetops and 20 ziplines, the longest of which is 240m in length. You get three hours with your ticket to play in the park, so suit up and let the competition commence. Aventura Amazonia Marbella Treetop Park, £19 per person aventura-amazonia.com

MYSTERIES IN EGYPT

There's a lot to be said about spending your hen night in the wondrous land of pharaohs and pyramids. While much of Egypt is currently a no-go area, Sharm-el-Sheikh is still geared up for tourists. And for those of you who loved Sherlock Holmes then why not try the tweed deerstalker hat on for size? Murder to Measure is a company specialising in murder mystery plots both in the UK and in various destinations around the globe. Our favourite being Mummy's the Word in Egypt, set in 1919 and featuring ancient curses, priceless artifacts, death and a few camels. But don't worry if you or your ladies aren't the theatrical type as they'll have staff on board to nudge everyone in the right direction. And what's more, there's not even a script in sight. Murder to measure, prices vary murdertomeasure.co.uk

WILD IN ITALY

When it comes to meeting nature head on, there's no better way than to do it on a glamping trip. And there's no better place to glamp than in beautiful Italy. We love the idea of the Mongolian yurts that can be found in the centre of Tuscany. Here you'll get reacquainted with the countryside whilst immersing yourselves in the local food and wine. You even get your own private shower and a comfy bed so you can happily head out to the local villages during the day to enjoy pasta at its finest. Agriturismo Fattoria La Prugnola. Prices start from £256 for 2 people per week, goglampng.net

FLIRTY IN AMSTERDAM

If you fancy something a bit cheeky for your do then look no further than a course on seduction in Amsterdam. You and your girls will learn the tricks of the trade that you can take with you to the marriage bed. After two hours you'll all be set loose on the unsuspecting public who are geared up and ready to party in this place most famous for its bustling nightlife. But if you can bring yourselves to get up the next morning, it's also full of wonderful architecture, stunning art and atmospheric streets where you can while away an afternoon just taking in the stunning scenes. Amsterdam flirt and seduce workshop, prices vary chillisauce.co.uk

DANCING IN BARCELONA

If there's one thing that a hen do is all about, it's looking good on the dancefloor. And in the Cosmopolitan city of Barcelona you can do that both through the night and during the long, hot days. From Bollywood to Burlesque, Hip Hop to Pole, the Barcelona Themed Dance Lessons will teach you the moves you've always wanted to learn in just 60 minutes. Obviously you just choose the one, unless of course you fancy following a day of Cheerleading with an afternoon of Flamenco. Barcelona Themed Dance Lessons, prices vary chillisauce.co.uk

ACTION IN TOSSA DE MAR

One of the biggest hen trends this year has been 'It's a Knockout', but if you fancy a bit more of a challenge then we've discovered the It's a Knockout/BBQ/Paintball challenge in Tossa De Mar, Spain. Begin your day with a competitive two hour session getting down and dirty, before enjoying a BBQ-filled break. Then for the final challenge head to the woods for an action-packed afternoon of paintballing. This one's not for the faint-hearted but is perfect if you're planning a Broomcation (that's a hen & stag trip in one). And what better place to recover than in this beautiful setting - chill out on one of the stunning beaches or relax with a glass of champagne on one of the glass-bottomed boats. It's a Knockout/BBQ/Paintballing, £58 per person d-aventura.com

BATHE IN BUDAPEST

If you enjoy the odd trip to the spa, then you'll love the thermal spa hen weekend in Budapest. There are many thermal spas around the city, but one of the best and most popular is the Gellert Spa, which combines beautiful Art Nouveau architecture dating back to 1918. When you're not relaxing in the baths then there's plenty of chances to immerse yourself in the culture and history of this gem of a city, or head to one of the markets, which stand side by side with the huge shopping malls. Whatever you're after, be it traditional folk craft or designer goods, you'll find it in Budapest.

Combine the spa trip with a night on the town and you've got the perfect recipe for an unforgettable hen weekend. Gellert Spa & thermal bath entry ticket, £15.50 per person gellertspa.com
