SUMMARY

I'm a passionate and driven third-year Media Production student, currently developing my skills in graphic design, UX/UI, and branding. I enjoy the challenges that come with learning and growing in these fields, constantly seeking opportunities to refine my abilities across digital design software. I enjoy the creative freedom in graphic design and UX/UI and I'm motivated by the variety that these industries offer. I take a hands on approach and I'm always eager to explore new tools, techniques, and approaches to enhance my design expertise.
