

CLANCY

Twenty One Pilots

Who are Twenty One Pilots?

Twenty One Pilots is a band out of Columbus, Ohio, consisting of lyricist/singer Tyler Joseph, along with drummer Josh Dun. Together, they have produced 2 independent albums along with 7 studio albums.

A Storyline to Follow

In 2015, Twenty One Pilots released their album, Blurryface, beginning the story on the continent of Trench at a city called Dema, where the citizens are controlled by 9 bishops. The bishops practice a religion called "Dialism" convincing the citizens that the way to happiness is self destruction. Clancy, the main character of the story looks to break free from Dema with the help of an outside rebel group called the Banditos. Each time Clancy escapes, Nico, one of the bishops always finds him and brings him back to Dema. This storyline is spread out throughout their albums Blurryface, Trench, Scaled and Icy, and their newest album, Clancy, showing the final battle between Clancy and Nico.

Album Overview

Statistics

Debuted at #3 on Billboard top 200 within the week of being released.

143,000 units sold within the first week of being released.

38.64 million on demand streams of the album's songs.

Clancy's songs have a variety of meanings ranging from songs written for fans, songs that follow the Clancy/Dema storyline, but all the songs have an underlying theme of mental health awareness. Twenty One Pilots have always advocated for mental health, with songs like At the Risk of Feeling Dumb encouraging listeners to check in on their friends because you never know what other's are experiencing.

CLANCY

Tracklist

1. Overcompensate
2. Next Semester
3. Backslide
4. Midwest Indigo
5. Routines in the Night
6. Dignette
7. The Craving (Jenna's version)
8. Lavish
9. Navigating
10. Snap Back
11. Oldies Station
12. At the Risk of feeling Dumb
13. Paladin Strait

Overcompensate

Navigating

Palidan Strait

The songs Overcompensate, Navigating, and Palidan Strait connect to the storyline of Clancy and Dema

