

Graphics/Images

A graphic of Fidelity Bank is displayed over the left shoulder of the broadcaster.

WS of police tape surrounding the bank

WS to MCU of Jack Sherry standing outside of the local police station.

WS of the General Motors Plant while V.O plays

Cut to MCU of Barney Olive speaking

Story #1

The Fidelity Bank downtown was rocked by an armed robbery this morning.

Two men brandishing shotguns entered the bank, forcing everyone to get on the ground except for bank manager Jack Sherry

In total, the two men stole twenty-two thousand dollars. "Fortunately, we hadn't taken all of the money we would have left out of the vault; they seemed interested in the money they could see."

The assailants are still on the run. Officers say that they drove away in a red, four-door chevrolet with New York license plates

\

Story #2

The Local Machinists Union 333 has called for an indefinite walk-out strike of all employees at the General Motors plant.

Following failure to renew a contract between both parties.

Leaders in the union say that the company's inaction cannot continue. "We have bargained in good faith, but we see no evidence that General Motors is doing the same thing."

MCU of the reporter with the plant visible over the right shoulder.

MCU of a reporter standing in front of the city hall.

WS of people standing outside the city hall.

A graphic of how much the school budget would increase due to the tax increase.

MCU of the reporter in the studio, graphic of the representative over their shoulder.

Photo of Milton Bradford from 27 years ago when he was first sworn in.

Photo of Milton Bradford in the State House.

General Motors declined our request for a statement on the walkout but insisted that the plant would remain operational.

Story #3

Tensions arose after a new property tax bill was passed by the city council. The mayor's office reports hundreds of calls, all angry over the tax increase.

Some residents are not happy about the 10% property tax increase. But, the mayor's office anticipated the public's upset.

Despite this, the city government insists that the tax increase will bring much needed relief to the local city school systems.

Story #4

Democratic state representative Milton Bradford will not be seeking reelection.

The Democrat from Loganville served in the State House of Representatives for twenty seven years and was speaker for the past ten years.

Bradford is a strong supporter of the states education lobby, recently, he worked to secure a pay raise for the states public school teachers

MCU of a reporter in studio with a graphic of United Way over the shoulder.

Graphic displaying how much money has been raised.

Cut to MCU of Sara Morris giving an interview.

B-roll of planes taking off from the airport tarmac.

Graphic displaying how many flights take off/ arrive to the Airport

Story #5

A local record has been set in the county after United Way was able to raise more money than they ever had before.

Over four hundred fifty five thousand dollars have been raised to support community charities and local service organizations

The county's United Way chairman this year Sara Morris was surprised at how much they could raise "We couldn't be happier with the progress that we have made."

Story #6

A new runway has been announced for the airport. The airport authority announced that the 3 million dollar extension will be complete next year.

This runway will accommodate increased demand by airlines for more scheduled flights.

Airport Authority chairman Sam Peck states that the airport will recover quickly from the costs.