

Where Exercise & Convenience Intersect

POCKET 1

This deep side-loaded front pocket reveals a roomy storage space intended for a smartphone or a water bottle. While easily accessible, items still stay snugly in place.

POCKET 2

This vertical zippered front pocket opens to a discreet yet spacious storage pouch. Dubbed “the money pocket,” this secured space is perfectly sized for cash, credit cards, IDs, passport and keys.

POCKET 3

Located on the back, this surprisingly spacious zippered pocket opens horizontally, housing extras such as lip balm, ear buds, a portable charger, pepper spray or snacks with comfort & ease.

Workout Storage Made Simple

How to Insert a Phone or Water Bottle into Pocket #1

The TUBE can accommodate even the largest smartphones, making a trip to the gym or a run in the park that much more convenient. Simply insert your phone into the deep side-loaded pocket and slide down to 'lock' in place. The headphone jack is conveniently accessible so you can listen while you work out.

This special pocket may also be utilized to stash a water bottle instead. Slip the water bottle in, rotate the TUBE 180 degrees to secure, and you're ready to get moving!

Durability Comes Standard

Stretchable

The TUBE is constructed of stretchy material that accommodates a variety of storage needs while also tightly hugging your body to be easily concealed.

Quick Dry

The scientifically-rendered TUBE waistband quickly dries when dampened to ensure you get the most use out of it!

Laundry Wash

The TUBE is made of stretchy fabric called lycra, which is machine-washable, and is designed with longevity in mind.

Built for Every Adventure

Lifestyle

The patented zippered and side-load pockets of the TUBE waistband makes it ideal for all your storage needs, from smartphones to money, IDs, keys, chap stick, snacks, and much more! No longer struggle with the logistics of working out while securing your important items—the TUBE has alleviated these worries so you can spend less time fretting and more time working out!
