Celebrate Eastern Culture with a Timeless and Powerful Mantra

Celebrate AANHPI (Asian American Native Hawaiian Pacific Islander) Heritage Month with jewelry that captures the spiritual heart of traditional Eastern Buddhist Teachings.

Found carved into the mountainsides and landscape of Tibet, Om Mani Padme Hum is a traditional Divine Mantra held sacred by many Buddhist cultures. Meaning “Praise to the Jewel in the Lotus,” the sound of Om Mani Padme Hum’s spiritual vibrations captures the heart of Buddhist teachings. Like the Lotus Flower itself, Om Mani Padme Hum empowers the speaker with purity, strength and rebirth.

Seven Saints is offering a line of jewelry engraved with this ancient mantra in celebration of AANHPI Heritage Month. It is believed that wearing such sacred words close to the body can empower and transform negative emotions into spiritual growth.
