TITLE: TRUMP AND ELON'S FEUD

<https://youtu.be/sCd3xu7OiHc> {0:17-0:24}

Elon Musk and Donald Trump went from having a very unique bromance to butting heads on the streets of X, formerly known as Twitter.

What started as a strategic alliance between a populist president and a tech billionaire has now turned into a digital tug-of-war. With policy threats, billion-dollar consequences, and some spicy tweets in between.

Today, we're breaking down how this bromance broke, why it matters, and what it says about power in modern America.

So let's rewind to the early Trump years. Elon Musk joined Trump's business advisory councils. At the time, it was sort of a marriage of convenience. Elon needed influence to protect his businesses. Trump needed high-profile innovators to legitimize his agenda.

Even though they disagreed on climate change, immigration, and Mars (probably), the two made it work for a while.

In December, 2016, Trump appointed Musk to his Strategic and Policy Forum.

Now fast forward to what brought about the "Ultimate Feud" you can add a big text with the word and some effect

The feud between Elon and Trump started when the 'One Big Beautiful Bill was passed'. Officially called H.R.1, this bill was introduced by Rep. Jodey Arrington insert a picture of Jodey Arrington and pushed through the House on May 22, 2025 by a single vote.

Backed by House Republicans and Speaker Mike Johnson,  it was loaded with tax cuts and deregulation... but it also took a swipe at the electric vehicle industry. Trump hyped it as a game-changer on the other hand, Elon saw it as a sucker punch to the EV industry. The bill gutted green incentives, effectively putting Tesla in a political chokehold.

Elon fired back on X, calling it a “disgusting abomination.”

Trump, never one to ghost a grudge, called Elon “ungrateful” and questioned whether SpaceX should still get government contracts.

When things got a bit tricky was when trump stated that Elon knew everything about the bill before it was passed. <https://youtu.be/b3MBV9fLZ10> {1:15-1:38}

The two kept on going back and forth about the bill by bashing each other on social media.

Elon then went ahead and termed the bill a ‘Debt Slavery Bill’ on his post on X

Things took a totally different turn when Elon’s now deleted tweet hinted that Trump had ties with Jeffery Epstein.

Jeffrey Epstein was a wealthy financier and convicted sex offender who was accused of running a massive sex trafficking ring involving underage girls and powerful figures. He was arrested in 2019 and died in jail under suspicious circumstances, sparking widespread conspiracy theories and investigations.

Since the dispute between President Trump and Elon started, Elon Musk has lost a total of $34 billion dollars. Which made him the person who has lost the most money in the history of the world.

Is this bill truly a ‘One big beautiful bill’ or a ‘One big dangerous bill’?
