On The Red Carpet Extends its Reach Across the Country

Los Angeles — On The Red Carpet, America's new entertainment source, adds 50% more stations, expanding its coverage to 37% of the country. All the ABC-owned television stations, from Los Angeles to New York and from Chicago to Houston, carry On The Red Carpet on their main channels and on their digital tier channels on the Live Well Network. And as of November 8, OTRC will also air on key Belo-owned television stations, in markets including Dallas, St. Louis, Charlotte, Norfolk, and New Orleans, on their D2 channels.

On The Red Carpet ABC stations include KABC Los Angeles, WABC New York, WLS Chicago, WPVI Philadelphia, KGO San Francisco, KTRK Houston, WTVD Raleigh-Durham, KFSN Fresno, WJRT Flint, Michigan, and WTVG Toledo.

Make sure to send your story pitches to pr@otrc.com for consideration.

On the Red Carpet is hosted by Miss USA 2007, Rachel Smith, and Emmy-winning broadcast journalist, Chris Balish. On The Red Carpet and OnTheRedCarpet.com provide all the celebrity headlines, happenings, glitz and glamour from Hollywood and beyond as they highlight the best of the week in celebrity and style. OTRC is on top of the hottest red carpet events, movie premieres and awards shows, as well as celebrity interviews, red carpet fashion, movie news and much more.

On the Red Carpet is a production of KABC-TV Los Angeles. Check local listings for time periods in each market.
