

Week Five – Sports Business Journal Social Media Posts

Victoria Greco

@grecovictoria_sports

Exciting news from the Mission Rocks Project - Phase 1 is officially complete!

The site is transforming with 11 buildings, featuring 1.4 million sq ft of office and life science space, 200,000 sq ft of restaurants, and around 1,000 rental units, all surrounded by beautiful parks and open space. Stay tuned for more updates!
#SanFrancisco #MissionRocksProject

Victoria Greco

@grecovictoria_sports

Fan attendance at MLB games increases 10% since the rule changes in 2023 to make game time shorter. These shorter games have made it easier for fans to enjoy America's pastime without conflicting with school or work commitments.

The average game time for this season was 2 hours and 36 minutes.

#MLB #RuleChange #PitchClock

"We Need To Talk" Celebrates 10 Years

This groundbreaking all-women show continues to break barriers by tackling sports and social issues head-on. With a recent episode drawing 327,000 viewers, it's clear that the conversation is more vital than ever.

"Women can now aspire to be everything."

LESLEY VISSER, HOST

Voted to Sports Broadcasters Hall of Fame (CBS, ABC, HBO, ESPN)

Photo: CBS Sports Network

One Last Goodbye.

Jacob Wilson seen taking dirt from the field and fans salvaging seats from the stadium during the Athletics' last game at the Coliseum. It's bittersweet to say goodbye as the A's gear up for their move to Sacramento.

What Are Your Favorite Memories At
The Coliseum? Share in the comments!