When you give to the Currier, you're giving to the many individuals in our community whose lives are enriched through art. Just as the annual fund is critical to the success of the museum, donors like you are key to a robust annual fund.

Annual fund gifts support our community programs:

The Art of Hope, for families dealing with the opioid crisis; the Memory Café, for people living with memory loss; Making Art Accessible, for teens and adults with developmental disabilities, as well as many other outreach and art education programs. Annual fund gifts also support exhibitions and the care of our permanent collection. Your gifts strengthen the museum and expand our reach in the community in a myriad of ways.

Whatever your reason for giving to the Currier Museum, we are very grateful! Thank you for including us in your plans during this season of giving.
