

About Books & Brews - Zionsville

If you're looking for a unique brewery experience in Zionsville, IN, stop by Books & Brews. This team is committed to providing a one-of-a-kind experience for customers, creating an inclusive culture and personal experience for everyone who walks through their doors. Trust them to make you feel like a regular, even if it's your first time visiting.

This shop proudly brews their own beers, with four flagship beers on tap at all times. These include Nancy, Clifford, Cream & Punishment, and Charlie; from a Citra-hopped pale ale to a chocolate milk stout, they have something for every taste. They also provide rotating and guest taps of other specialty brews. Be sure to stop by for New Beer Fridays to try the latest and greatest. Pair your craft beer with a selection from their food menu and rest easy knowing they use locally sourced ingredients.

As evidenced by the literary-inspired names of their brews and menu items, this shop is passionate about literature. They offer used books priced at $3 every day. If you're cleaning out your own collection, donate to Books & Brews. They accept all donations, and 10 percent of the proceeds earned from used book sales are donated to Indy Reads, which promotes adult and family literacy.

This shop also offers the Mug Club, a rewards program for loyal customers that never expires. For a one-time fee of $70, you can enjoy perks such as special prices on beer and food, a locally handmade ceramic mug to keep, and 10 percent off merchandise. Mug Club members can also use the books section as a lending library—just leave a book and take a book!

In addition to enjoying their books and beers, be sure to check out Books & Brews' podcast and TV offerings. Call (317) 344-0365 to learn more or visit
