

https://www.mdjonline.com/sports/henderson-to-host-jr-nba-camp/article_861a99b6-f7ab-11ec-9ec2-e3eb55dbb44b.html

Henderson to host Jr. NBA Camp

By Joi Palmore MDJ Sports Writer
Jun 29, 2022

Scoot Henderson

Former Kell High School standout Scoot Henderson will host a two-day Junior NBA camp for ages 6-14 on July 12-13.

The camp will take place at the Next Play 360 facility on Canton Road from 9 a.m.-1 p.m. each day.

The cost of the camp is $80, which includes coaching from Henderson, currently with the Ignite team of the NBA G League, and others. Campers should bring tennis shoes, shorts and a T-shirt.

Campers will be presented with a Junior NBA shirt, drawstring bags, whistles and lanyards.

According to the Next Play 360 website, participants will be introduced to basketball skills that will incorporate teamwork, diversity and problem solving.

Next Play 360 is a nonprofit organization that uses sports to promote STEM disciplines for Cobb County students. The program features afterschool and summer camps to engage students in athletics, leadership and academics by integrating STEM fundamentals.

The facility has two basketball or volleyball courts, six pickleball courts, and a STEM lab/study lounge in construction.

More information can be found concerning the camp at nextplay360.com or call 678-540-7948.