Kennesaw State and Georgia are among the colleges that will be featured as part of the Braves' college nights.
Atlanta Braves

The Atlanta Braves are partnering with five Georgia colleges to host their annual college nights.

Ticket packages will include a co-branded stadium seat. Each ticket sold from the college nights will include a $3 donation to a local scholarship fund for each school.

Georgia Southern will be first up, with its college night taking place July 31 against the Arizona Diamondbacks.

College nights are also set for Georgia Tech on Aug. 2 against the Philadelphia Phillies, for Kennesaw State on Aug. 16 against the New York Mets and for Georgia and Georgia State on Aug. 30 and 31, respectively, against the Colorado Rockies.

There will also be college nights for Florida, Tennessee, Clemson, Kentucky, Alabama, Auburn, Florida State and South Carolina.

Ticket packages begin at $40. For more information, and to purchase tickets, visit braves.com/collegenights.
