

ANGELINA JOHANSEN

MEDIA AND COMMUNICATIONS STUDENT

I am a passionate Second-year student in media and communications at UNSW. I'm someone who loves to try new things, meeting new people and am looking for suitable experience related to media and communications for my future career. I am an earnest learner and have high respect for managing positions and co-workers around me. My strongest expertise are in communication, social, collaboration, teamwork, and organizational skills. I thrive in working in a team environment but can also work in my own initiative.
