PROFILE

Experienced editor and professional communicator with a demonstrated history in daily journalism and higher-education strategic media.

EXPERIENCE

NEWS JOURNALIST, The University of West Alabama, Livingston, Alabama — October 2021 to present

Duties include all facets of publicizing the students, faculty and staff of the four-year, public university in Livingston, Alabama. I also assist with university communication plans, social media efforts, brand strategy, website management and intranet content.

COLUMNIST/PODCAST HOST, The Anniston Star, Anniston, Alabama — June 2019 to August 2021

Duties include writing three metro columns a week, long-form takeouts and feature stories for the news and features sections, and hosting newspaper podcasts.

COLLEGE MEDIA COORDINATOR, The University of Memphis, Memphis, Tennessee — November 2018 to May 2019

Duties included overseeing the college's social media accounts, publicizing college events, writing and editing for the college's annual magazine, and assisting with event planning.

COMMENTARY EDITOR, The Anniston Star, Anniston, Alabama — September 2006 to June 2019

Duties included daily editing, designing, content curation and writing operations of The Star's editorial and op-ed pages and Sunday Insight section; developing content for the newspaper's social media presence and the newspaper's website and uploading and design of department's content for the web. Duties also included writing editorials and op-ed columns, recruiting submissions, selecting op-ed columns and screening letters to the editor.

INSTRUCTOR, The University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, Alabama — August 2007 to August 2009

I assisted with master's-level journalism classes for the University of Alabama's graduate school that operates inside The Star's newsroom.

MANAGING EDITOR, The Anniston Star, Anniston, Alabama — May 2003 to September 2006

Led a newsroom staff of 42 of The Star, one of the nation's top small dailies. Duties included participation in daily budget/planning sessions; critiquing daily papers; recruiting, screening and teaching intern candidates; performance reviews of employees and handling most personnel matters in the newsroom; long-range planning for all departments, especially business and sports; setting ethics standards and guidelines for the newsroom; and overseeing entire newsroom production.

NEWS EDITOR, The Anniston Star, Anniston, Alabama — March 2002 to May 2003

Led a nine-person copy desk/graphics staff and assisted the executive editor in a role that ranked me as the newsroom's No. 2 editor. Duties included overseeing the department; critiquing daily layouts; planning of each day's news sections; handling wire budgets; designing new sections; assisting in news projects; managing space requirements for all news editorial departments; and paginating pages.

SPORTS EDITOR/COLUMNIST, The Anniston Star, Anniston, Alabama — March 2000 to March 2002

Duties included planning, budgeting, scheduling and personnel matters within an APSE award-winning staff of seven that covered 38 high schools, three Division I-A colleges and a home-town NASCAR track.

ASSISTANT SPORTS EDITOR/COLUMNIST, The Anniston Star, Anniston, Alabama — April 1998 to March 2000

Duties included coordinating sports coverage for three beats and handling all travel arrangements for staff, writing three columns per week and working desk slot shifts.

SPORTS WRITER, The Anniston Star, Anniston, Alabama — September 1989 to April 1998

I covered University of Alabama sports for nine years.
