Finding Positivity in the Pandemic

Joy Morgan Motivates Helps People Turn Their Calling into Their Career

PHILADELPHIA – February 1, 2022 – Joy Morgan is an inspirational and internationally sought-after speaker, author, business coach, pastor and founder, and CEO of Joy Morgan Motivates and Joy Morgan Ministries. Joy Morgan helps entrepreneurs turn “their heart work into their wealth work.”

Let’s face it – the past two years have been stressful and uncertain times. The COVID-19 pandemic has prompted many of us to reevaluate our lives, and our career paths. As society strives to rebound and adjust to a new normal, people are seeking opportunities that are more meaningful and satisfying. That’s where Joy Morgan Motivates can help. Morgan inspires people to answer their calling to find their purpose.

“With every crisis there is opportunity,” those are the words of the late great minister Myles Munroe,” recites Morgan. “I used that mantra to motivate myself as we went into the pandemic. Now more than ever, it is time to do what you are called to do. Should a pandemic be able to stop that?”

Through speaker training and personalized coaching, Joy Morgan helps others on their pathway to create wealth, find their voice, tell their story, and walk into their destiny. “If we’re willing to pivot, we can find the positivity right in the pandemic,” said Morgan.

So, who is Joy Morgan, Joy Morgan Motivates and Joy Morgan Ministries? Morgan empowers and inspires people to greatness and has spoken at conferences across the continental United States, St. Thomas, Qatar, Canada, and Bermuda. She is the author of two books; Roadmap to Destiny, A 21-Day Devotional for those on the Pathway to Purpose and G.E.T.U.P, 5 Steps to Bouncing Back When Life Knocks You Down, and co-authored a book with her husband, Home Team, How to Win on the Marriage Field.

Morgan graduated from the University of Delaware with a Bachelor of Science degree in Civil Engineering, earned a master's degree in Education Administration from Rutgers University, and is currently pursuing a doctoral degree in Strategic Leadership at Regent University.

She is a destiny coach who teaches new and aspiring entrepreneurs to sharpen their public speaking skills to monetize their message in her "Talk Like a Boss Speaker Academy. She also teaches aspiring writers how to publish and promote their books. Additionally, Morgan helps entrepreneurs grow and scale their business by providing them with proven strategies to successfully achieve their goals.

In 2022, Joy Morgan Ministries will hold its 7th annual Roadmap to Destiny Conference, September 15 - 17. Taking the event on the road to Orlando for the first time in its history, the conference will feature powerful speakers, dynamic workshops and an experience that will evolve participant's lives and businesses.

"When we're passionate about purpose we'll find a way to make a way. We won't make excuses. That's how we stay positive in a pandemic," stated Morgan.
