

Michael Spiller returns for VFS’s Single-Cam Comedy Bootcamp – Aug. 23-24.

Emmy-winning Director Michael Spiller is no stranger to VFS.

Last year, the Modern Family director led our inaugural Bootcamp, where participants collaborated on the production of a TV sitcom scene. Now, Michael is back to create a single-cam comedy scene (think The Office) with aspiring writers, actors, & directors!

Get a glimpse of our first event with Michael below. Whether you previously joined this industry legend on-set or are new to our Bootcamps, this is a hands-on industry experience you won’t want to miss.

WHAT TO EXPECT AT THE BOOTCAMP:

Saturday kicks off with an Industry Panel featuring Michael Spiller, offering behind-the-scenes insight into how directors, producers, actors, and crew collaborate on hit single-camera comedies, followed by a Q&A.

Next, participants break into groups: Writers craft 1-page scenes (one will be selected for production), actors audition for lead roles, and one director will be chosen to shadow Michael on set.

On Sunday, the selected scene is produced with full collaboration. All attendees gain rare, hands-on experience and a clear understanding of how a professional TV set operates.
