

Peyton Worsham

(904) 707-5954 · pe132677@ucf.edu
11612 College Park Trail, Orlando FL, 32817

CREATIVE WRITER & EDITOR

Passionate and enthusiastic writer with editing and archival experience, currently working towards a Bachelor's degree in English and seeking a collaborative work environment that promotes free expression and creativity, itching for an internship opportunity in any field ranging from the humanities to the legal field.

Excited to enter the work force, searching for a job that offers growth within the company.

KEY SKILLS

Proficient in English & French	Public speaking & presentation	Performing arts background
Incredibly detail oriented	Critical thinking skills	Proactive and self-motivated
Digitally literate	Excellent communication skills	Exceptional organisational skills

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Digital Archiving Resources January 2024 - April 2024
Student Digital Archivist

Working under Professor Mark Kamarath, gathered resources relating to digital archiving and input them into an online database which is constantly growing, which also provided experience in scanning documents and gathering microdata. The project was completed in teams, and our team excelled in collaboration and accountability. The project was done both in class, and outside, requiring personal accountability as well.

Cypress Dome Literary Magazine April 2024
Project Management Assistant

A published poet in UCF's student-led literary magazine, which features all genres. In the 35th Issue, my featured poem is "Sisyphus at 16," a poem about a tumultuous relationship between the narrator and a partner.

The Borgen Project June 2025 - August 2025
Journalist

Working alongside the Content Team, conducted research and wrote articles on global poverty in the context of the modern age. The position requires a political, historical, and creatively directed mind. Worked remotely and diligently to meet every deadline, frequently finishing weekly tasks early.

EDUCATION & AWARDS

UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL FLORIDA
English - Creative Writing
Graduating May 2026

Burnett Honors College Scholar

Johnson Scholarship Foundation
Recipient since 2023

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

HERCampus
August 2025
Article Author

Young Poets Society
August 2024 - Present

Cypress Dome Society
August 2025 - Present
Poetry Editor