

Adult Day Services result in fewer adverse events than other long-term care options. That means fewer falls, ER visits, and hospital stays.

Percentage of long-term care services users with overnight hospital stays, emergency department visits, and falls, by sector: United States, 2013 and 2014

(Source: CDC/NCHS National Study of Long-Term Care Providers)

