Step 1: LOCATION

CHOOSE ONE PLACE TO HOST!

The location of a watch party is important for setting the atmosphere, ensuring guest comfort and providing a good viewing experience.

House:

If you're hosting at home, create a cozy and inviting setup. Set up a big screen TV or projector in your living room or backyard. Provide comfortable seating, and decorate with beach-themed decor.

Beach:

Hosting a watch party on the beach can be a lot of fun. Set up a big screen TV or projector near the water. Bring beach chairs, blankets, and umbrellas for seating outside.

Gym:

If you have access to a gym or community center with a large space, you can set up multiple screens to ensure everyone has a good view of the game.

HOW MANY GUESTS?

Step 2: ACTIVITIES

SELECT ALL THAT INTEREST YOU!

Beach Volleyball Game:

Set up a net where guests can play volleyball games during breaks or before the main event.

Photo Booth:

Set up a photo booth area with beach-themed props like sunglasses and inflatable beach balls. Guests can take photos to remember the event and have a goodie!

Beach Decorations:

Decorate your party area with beach-themed decorations such as sandcastle centerpieces, leis, and beach umbrellas.

Medal Ceremony:

At the end of the party, you can hold a mock medal ceremony for the winning team of any games played.

Step 3: Entrees

CHOOSE ONE MAIN ITEM!

Volleyball Sandwiches:

Cut sandwiches into shapes resembling volleyballs or beach balls.

Beach Burgers:

Serve burgers with beach-themed names like "Sandcastle Sliders".

Sunshine Skewers:

Skewers with grilled chicken, pineapple, and bell peppers to represent the sun and sand.

Seashell Pasta Salad:

Use shell-shaped pasta to create pasta salad with veggies, cheese, and a light dressing.

Fish Tacos:

Grilled or fried fish fillets served in soft tortillas with coleslaw, avocado, and a squeeze of lime.

Step 4: SNACKS

SELECT AS MANY SIDES AS DESIRED!

Wave Chips:

Rippled potato chips served with a dip of your choosing.

Beach Ball Fruit Platter:

Arrange fruits like watermelon, cantaloupe and honeydew in a beach ball pattern.

Volleyball Cake Pops:

Create cake pops in the shape of volleyballs by using round cake balls dipped in white chocolate with black icing to resemble volleyball markings.

Beach Bucket Snack Mix:

Combine pretzel sticks, fish-shaped crackers, goldfish crackers, and popcorn in mini beach buckets for a fun and easy-to-grab snack.
