

Giving Back for Curt

In 2017, Curtis James Wilson, son of Founder and Director Ashely Wilson, passed suddenly after a head-on collision.

Born out of a way to turn something tragic into something good, Curt's Closet was founded by Ashely to carry on Curt's legacy by giving back to the community he so dearly loved and that loved him.

Donate!

We rely on our community to donate clothing and provide funds to purchase clothing as needed and operate our facility. Become a friend of Curt's Closet and visit our website for more information!

"Giving Back to the Community that Loved Him"

At Curt's Closet we provide children, ages 19 years and younger, with clothing, shoes, and other basic needs, all for FREE. We also serve individuals and families who are facing emergency situations.

Our Mission

"Helping provide students with confidence through community action and God's love."

Our Program

- We are a boutique feel shop, where families in need can come 'shop' for various items of necessity, all for free.
- At every visit, children can shop for 10 items of clothing, 6 pairs of socks, 6 pairs of underwear, shoes and backpacks.

Who Qualifies?

- At Curt's Closet we provide children, ages 19 years and younger, with clothing, shoes, and other basic needs, all for FREE. We also serve individuals and families who are facing emergency situations.
- Every visit is by appointment only
- Visits are limited to 2 visits per year, perfect for back-to-school and winter needs!

Additional Programs

- Bless Your Soles: Shoe drive for back-to-school
