

Camden Henry	Date: 6-13-2018
TV News 613THEFT
Package #2
TRT: 1:29
VIDEO	AUDIO
Anchor: Angelique Fullwood V01: - TC 0:00 Cars driving - TC 0:08 Cars driving SOT1: Officer Damon Miller, Police Officer - TC 0:16 VO2: - TC 0:35 Police officer badge - TC 0:39 Florida Department of Law Enforcement Main Entrance sign - TC 0:43 FDLE Entrance - TC 0:45 FSU Doak Stadium Parking Lot - TC 0:49 FSU Gym Parking Lot - TC 0:52 Neighborhood Crime Watch sign SOT2: Brandon Grant, Civilian - TC 0:54 VO3: - TC 0:59 Driving car in garage - TC 1:00 Leon County Sheriff car - TC 1:03 Door closes - TC 1:04 Car door locks - TC 1:05 Car windows going up SU: Camden Henry	Anchor Intro: Great things are coming out of the city as crime rate begins to decrease. Camden Henry has more to the story... VO1: Tallahassee's crime rate has fluctuated over the years. Car thefts, however, became the city's #1 crime. But after a four year reign in the state, the numbers have finally decreased. Officer Damon Miller, from the Tallahassee Police Department, shared his thoughts on the percentage drop. Trt; 19 sec SOT1: Ofr. Damon Miller In: I think it's...it's good... Out: Like Two Egg or Quincy Trt; 16 sec VO2: According to the 2017 Uniform Crime Reports, Leon County ended the year with 877 motor vehicle thefts, a 68% decrease from 2016's report, ending with 1,275 motor vehicle thefts. For residents, the decline is relieving. Trt; 18 sec SOT2: Brandon Grant In: I'm just glad... Out: noticeable issue... Trt; 5 sec

Anchor: Angelique Fullwood	VO3: To continue the trend, local police urges residents to keep their doors closed, locked, as well as their windows rolled up. Trt; 8sec In: Tallahassee's law environment is... Out: STD Trt; 23 sec Anchor Tag: Success indeed! We will definitely keep an eye out for the new update when the year ends.