

SINGAPORE CHINESE GIRLS' SCHOOL TESTIMONIAL

Name : ARYLL ELISHA LIM RE SHAN

Identification No. : T0706972Z

Aryll Elisha Lim Re Shan was a student of Singapore Chinese Girls' School from 2 January 2020 to 31 December 2023 and has completed Secondary Four.

Aryll is a reliable learner who has demonstrated a strong sense of responsibility in all her tasks and endeavours. She is also a passionate learner who is willing to try new things, eager to expand her knowledge and skills. She takes challenges in her stride and leverages them as valued opportunities to improve her skill set. Aryll's hard work, perseverance and determination to overcome challenges earned her the Merit Jinyu Award for two consecutive years (2020 and 2021).

Aryll took on the challenge to join the National Cadet Corps (NCC) as her co-curricular activity (CCA) with enthusiasm and positivity. She was awarded the Best Recruit Award in 2020, a testament to her hard work and willingness to learn. She has a caring and gentle demeanor, always offering her peers a helping hand and a listening ear whenever they need it. Her empathy and compassion made her an invaluable member of the NCC where she was appointed the Head of NCC and Unit Sergeant Major from 2022 to 2023. As a leader, Aryll had the opportunities to practice effective time management and communication skills. She led the team in putting together a team-choreographed routine for the 2022 Freestyle Exhibition Drill Competition, which made the finals.

Aryll also served in the Prefectorial Board (PB) from 2020 to 2023. She was selected to be part of the Executive Committee of the PB and served as the Welfare Head. Being the Head of Welfare showed her that being a leader was not only about taking the initiative but also giving others a chance to lead. Her commitment to service has been an inspiration to her peers.

Despite the amount of time spent in her CCA and PB, Aryll continued to be an active contributor and partake in class activities. As a Class Representative for two years in lower secondary, she took her responsibilities seriously and led her classmates in various projects, including Teacher's Day Celebration and Spirit of the Class. This experience allowed her to mature and think beyond herself, as she worked together with her fellow class representative to ensure the success of the project. Overall, Aryll's involvement in her class activities showcases her leadership skills, ability to work with others, and dedication to achieving common goals.

Aryll's involvement in service learning and giving back to society has been commendable. She has taken part in various activities, including the Virtual Values-In-Action (VIA) in 2022 and the collaboration with Xishan Primary School. During the Virtual VIA, Aryll together with her classmates, taught the elderly skills such as knitting and engaging the elderly in conversation. Despite language barriers, Aryll found the experience to be extremely worthwhile and eye-opening, learning to understand and see things from the perspective of the elderly. Aryll's collaboration with Xishan Primary School tutoring primary school kids from broken homes made her appreciate the many opportunities given to her, and how privileged and fortunate she is as compared to these children. Overall, Aryll's involvement in service learning and giving back to society shows her compassion, dedication, and willingness to help others.

In 2021, Aryll she was a facilitator for the annual Singapore Chinese Girls' School Open Little Eyes (OLE) conference which aims to expose primary students to global issues and spur them to be change agents. As a facilitator, she underwent training sessions that not only prepared her to better conduct the activities, but to sensitively reach out and communicate with primary school students. Aryll's affability and sincerity was evident through her authentic interactions with the participants.

SINGAPORE CHINESE GIRLS' SCHOOL TESTIMONIAL

Name : ARYLL ELISHA LIM RE SHAN

Identification No. : T0706972Z

Aryll leads by example and motivates those around her to achieve their best. She consistently demonstrates empathy and can work collaboratively with others. She will be a valued asset to any organisation she joins.

MISS YEO POH TIN
Form Teacher's Signature

MRS LINDA CHAN
Principal's Signature

16/10/2023

Date