| Summation: | One-game look at right-handed hitting future everyday center fielder. Hustler. Bat path is level and barrel stays in hitting zone with present bat speed. Contact has shown improvement each year - makes adjustments when needed. Takes his walks but strikes out as well. Uses all fields to flash present plus raw power and projectable body + age indicates he could still add strength. Speed and instincts on the bases makes him a threat to steal. Best throws have carry and are accurate - instincts and speed will help him stick in center field. A spark-plug type player. | | |
