Category	Present	Future	Velocity	Comments
Fastball *	50	50	91-94	Fastball sat 93
FB Movement	50	55		Can sink it or ride it at the top of the zone. Not overpowering velo wise but gets s/m underneath the carry fastball and induces ground balls when he sinks it
Curve *	50	55	81-82	11-6 shape to cb. Has depth and bite. Doesn't consistently throw for strikes, but does get s/m and chase with it
Slider *	50	55		11-5 shape with feel to spin. Gets swing and miss and can land for glove strikes
Other *
Change	40	45	84-87	Firm change with fade and late sink. Doesn't flash much but a good weapon to have to fade outside to LHH
Command	35	35		Tries to put most fastballs down/inside and secondary down and away - inconsistent with command - wild at times. Command holds him back
Control	35	40		More deception over strikes - has shown improvement with walk rate but not dreaming on strikes getting better
Baseball Instincts	45	45		Athletic with reflexes, doesn't always execute
Aggressiveness	50	50		Attacks hitters and has little to no fear
Summation:	3-inning look at future middle reliever/long relief. Strong, durable, fully mature body with no projection left. Long levers and crossfire delivery adds to his deception. Although his fastball isn't overpowering velocity wise, hitters tell you it's doing something. Easy plus curveball has feel to spin and gets s&m. Slider has distinct shape and he is able to throw it for strikes - just not consistently. The change is a nice weapon to flash to left handed hitters. Inconsistent with strikes and command - although he uses both sides of the plate, he misses and is more zone-over-spot. Doesn't command his pitches well enough to be a starter. Durability should allow him to go multiple innings.
