Nominate A Volunteer for the Andrus Award

Dear John,

Know an extraordinary volunteer age 50 or older?

Show your appreciation by nominating him or her for the 2017 Andrus Award for Community Service. AARP's most prestigious Massachusetts volunteer award recognizes individuals who are sharing their experience, talent and skills in ways that significantly enrich the lives of others. Only one individual or couple from Massachusetts may be selected each year.

Nominating a volunteer is easy! If you know someone age 50 or older who embodies the true definition of volunteerism, honor him or her with a nomination today!

The nomination deadline is Friday, June 2, 2017.

NOMINATE TODAY

Nomination Tips:

- Be specific about the nominee's contributions. The selection committee may not know the individual and has only your nomination form on which to base their decision.
- Give examples of the work performed and when, where and who was served.
- Please do not include accomplishments from paid work experience.
- Ask other people to nominate the same person.
