Games Played

22 Tarik Muharemović is a left-footed centre-back at Sassuolo who plays with a clear, no-nonsense defensive mindset. He wants to defend his box, win

Minutes Played

1936 his duels, and keep the back line stable, and he's most comfortable when the game is in front of him and he can attack crosses, step into contact,

Average Rating

6.97 and clear danger decisively. He can handle physical strikers, compete in the air, and use his frame to protect space at the back post; when he has

Goals

2 time on the ball, he'll move it safely and can hit simple switches or vertical

Assists

2 passes into midfield without forcing it. What he can't do (yet) is cover huge spaces like an elite recovery defender—if he gets dragged wide or turned

Dribble Success %

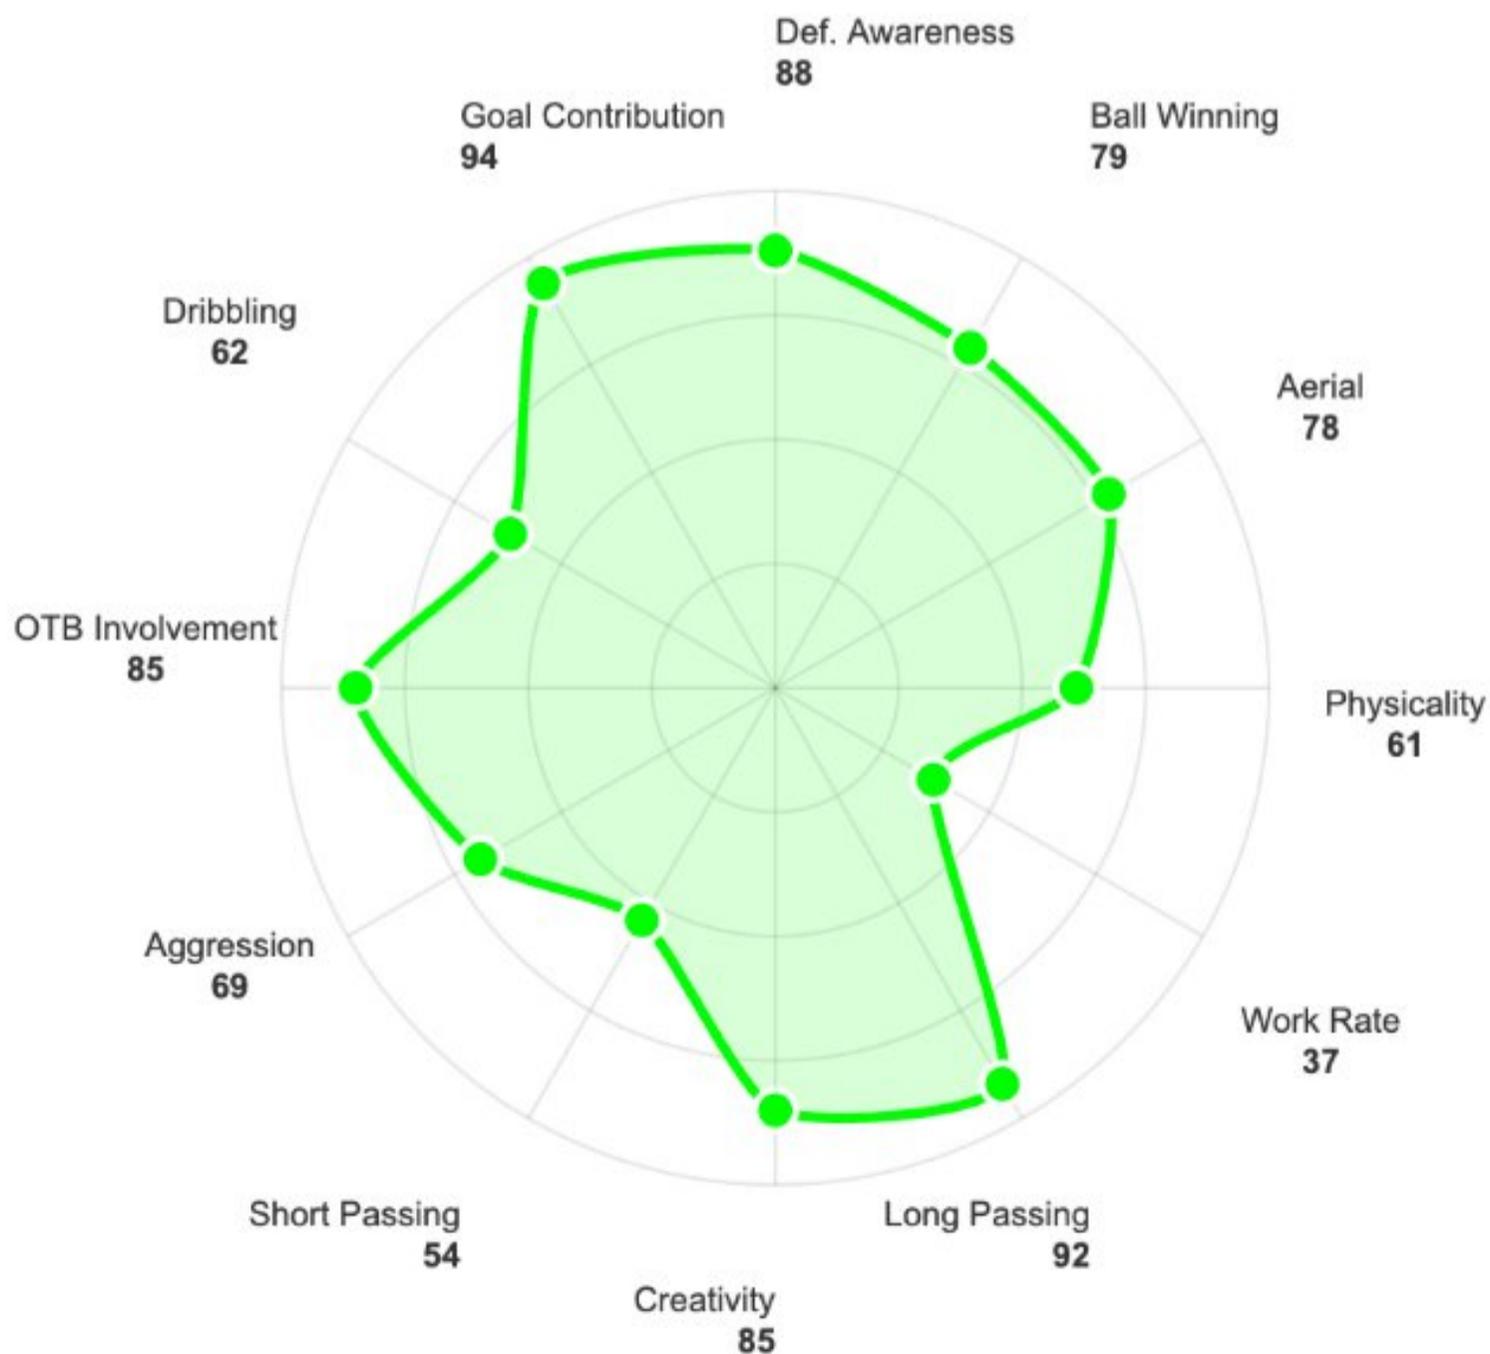

50% in open field, quick forwards can expose him and he's not the type of centre-back who will consistently break a press on his own with sharp,

Pass Accuracy

83.1% risky line breaking passes or dribbles. If Sassuolo ask him to defend deeper and be strong in the box, he looks at home; if they ask him to live

Duels Won %

70.3% on the halfway line and build like a playmaking CB, then his imitations start to show.
