

James Garner

Defensive Midfield • 25 yrs • Everton • Premier League • 2025/2026
England • Right foot • 182cm • Contract: June 2030

James Garner is a midfielder for Everton who plays best when the job is to keep his team ticking and give them some bite at the same time. He's comfortable dropping in to take the ball, he'll switch play and hit early passes into the channels, and he's got a decent strike and set-piece delivery so he can chip in with goals or assists from dead balls. He competes honestly, gets across the ground and doesn't shy away from tackles or duels, which makes him useful in games that are messy or transitional. Where he can fall short is when you ask him to be the one who opens teams up on his own, he's not a natural dribbler who's going to take people out of the game. He looks most effective with a clear remit in a midfield pair or three, where his passing range, work rate and set-piece quality add up to a solid and dependable profile.
