22 Başar Önal is a young, attack-minded wide player who plays with a direct mentality: he looks to receive in space, engage his fullback quickly, and drive into the final third to create shots or dangerous crosses. His game is built around his agility and short-area burst, using quick shifts of direction to unbalance defenders and open space either down the line or back inside. He can carry the ball to progress attacks, draw fouls, and create chaos in transition when the pitch opens up. The trade-off with him is that his influence can fade when opponents sit in a lower more compact block and deny him isolation, then the game asks for sharper positioning between the lines, quicker combination choices, and more consistent defensive tracking
