Caspar Jander is a 23-year-old Southampton central midfielder who can play as an 8 or a 6, and he is a coach's midfielder: clean on the ball, keeps the game moving, and gives you control through volume passing and good decision-making under pressure. He's comfortable dropping in to help build, can play through midfield with sharp short combinations, and he covers ground defensively, makes tackles, and wins his share of duels. What he still needs to add is more final-third threat from open play: more consistent incision with his last pass, more presence around the box.
