ABOUT ME

I am a creative and driven music producer, composer, and director with over 5 years of experience crafting original music and leading multimedia projects. Proven ability to compose, arrange, and produce across genres, with a track record of successful independent releases and project leadership. Founder and creative lead at Live Our LiveZZ (LOLZZ), with extensive experience in vocal arrangement, DAW production, and team collaboration. Currently directing a voice-over production set to launch at the end of the year.
