

Two Podcast Ad Scripts for Volcanica Coffee

Narrator: When was the last time you had coffee that truly energized you and satisfied your palate?

Make your coffee more than just a watery wake-up beverage. Every cup should be an exotic adventure that brings you full flavor with ethical, sustainable sourcing. That's why Volcanica Coffee exists.

Our single-origin beans are roasted every week and sourced from volcanic regions worldwide that offer unforgettable, unique flavors. With our one-day shipping, you receive coffee beans that are as fresh as possible. We give back to the regions we harvest from to do good by the environment and the people who've made us what we are.

Join the Coffee Club today to get premium, quality-assured coffee sent straight to your door every month—with free barista-grade oat milk for life.

Volcanica Coffee. Exotic by nature.

Speaker 1: (sipping) Ugh. When are you going to get a new coffee machine? Everything brewed in this one is disgusting.

Speaker 2: It's not my coffee machine, it's the cheap brands you keep buying.

Speaker 1: Who wants to splurge on coffee? As long as it gets me out of bed, it does the job.

Speaker 2: And who wants to splurge on a new machine when this one works just fine?

Speaker 3: (walks in) Luckily, you don't need to do either with Volcanica Coffee. Their roasts are ethically sourced, full of exotic flavor, and tested for quality. Plus, they offer regular discounts—no splurging required. (sound of them handing over a bag of coffee beans)

Speaker 2: Is this more of the usual coffee brand marketing hype?

Speaker 3: Try it yourself and see.

(coffee machine sounds)

Speakers 1 and 2: (sipping)

Speaker 2: Wow, you weren't kidding. This is the best brew that's ever come out of this machine.

Speaker 3: Stock up and you'll never taste a bad brew again. Volcanica's Coffee Club membership gets you up to 6 bags of coffee every month—free shipping and free oat milk for life. It's the perfect solution.

Narrator: Volcanica Coffee. Crafted by nature, perfected by us.
