

Savory, flavor-rich paella ... traditional Azeitao cheese paired with Portuguese wine ... and warm, flaky churros with a cup of strong Spanish coffee. From tapas made of fresh, colorful ingredients to green vineyards producing the finest libations, Spain and Portugal’s elaborate cultural heritage is reflected in its traditional food and wine. We’re thrilled to announce one special departure of our 2019 Iberian Voyage Small Ship Adventure—A Taste of Spain & Portugal—to give you the chance to experience this region’s gastronomical wonders for yourself.

Traveling through Spain, Portugal, and Morocco via small ship, you and your fellow travelers will participate in enriching experiences both onboard and on land. In addition to the included features on this itinerary, we’ve added new food- and wine-themed features, like a special dinner at Lisbon’s Palace of Queluz, and a visit to a family-owned olive farm in Seville. Don’t wait—this exclusive itinerary is only available on our March 16, 2018 departure. Call our Adventure Specialists at 1-800-955-1925 to reserve today.

Engage your senses with these exclusive discoveries

Blend Portuguese wine in Portimao

Spend a morning in the beautiful Quinta dos Vales for a wine blending experience, in which you’ll create your own bottle of wine. Sweet and savory snacks will be served as you craft your blend, so you can learn about popular Portuguese food and wine pairings.

Take a sip of Portugal

Visit a family-owned cheese farm in Azeitao

Get a sense of daily life in a picturesque village just outside Lisbon as a Portuguese family welcomes you to their farm to demonstrate how they make traditional Azeitao cheese. Then, visit a time-honored wine cellar for a sense of which wines pair best with this flavorful cheese.

Taste local cheese & wine

Embark on a “food crawl” of Lisbon

Sample traditional Portuguese street food as you make your way through Lisbon on your included tour. Not only will you experience historic Lisbon, but you’ll also eat as the locals do, stopping throughout your journey to try various delicacies from custard tarts to crisp Vinho Verde.

Eat like a local

Attend a paella workshop in Valencia

Learn about what goes into variations of this traditional dish at a local restaurant. You and your small group can try your hand at making this dish for yourselves before enjoying an authentic lunch.

Cook Valencia style

Stroll Triana Market in Seville

Interact with locals and peruse various spices, fruits, vegetables, meats, and more at a local Seville market. Later, a tapas demonstration onboard will show you how these ingredients come together for the perfect plate.

Sample fresh flavors of Spain
