Specifications

Attract bats to your yard with the Cedar Bat House.

Go batty in your yard with the addition of a Cedar Bat House. Bats are a gardener's best friend. They eat mosquitoes, caterpillars, moths and other insects. Plus, they pollinate crops and their guano is a top-notch fertilizer. With this single-chamber bat box with built-in landing groove, you can give up to 20 bats a place to roost during the day.

The cedar bat house is naturally weather resistant and made in the USA. Mount to any flat surface with the included mounting hardware. Then watch and learn as bats make themselves at home in your own backyard.

- The cedar bat house is naturally weather resistant
- Made in the USA
- Bat box mounts against any flat surface with included mounting hardware
- Provides shelter for up to 20 bats in single ornithologically correct bat chamber with built-in grooved landing area
