Summary

Current final year student at Edinburgh Napier University's BA (Hons) Journalism course, with a passion for podcasting and radio. Originally from Leicester, but now based in Edinburgh, I am looking for opportunities to develop my expertise. I am committed to producing engaging work that stands out in the ever-growing world of podcasts.

Experience

Leicester Youth Council Member – 2019-2021

- Involvement in social media campaigns as well as city enquiries

ENRG Co-Podcast Editor – 2023-2024

- Managed over 20 podcasts over the year
- Scheduled and communicated with each host
- Created content and ran the ENRG Podcast's Instagram
- Oversaw each podcast before it aired and edited a handful entirely, gaining experience with Audacity

ENRG Podcast Host and Editor of 'She Said' and 'The Inside Job'
2023-2024

- Co-host of two podcasts 'She Said', of the tv and film genre, and 'The Inside Job', a lifestyle show
- Shared the editing responsibilities and ran the social media for both shows

ENRG Radio Host of 'The Wind-Down Hour' 2024

- Hosted a weekly show curated by myself to create a restful environment

ENRG Events Organiser – 2024-2025

- Organised weekly socials, liaising with different businesses as hosts
- Singly planned the first ENRG Ball for over 100 people

Entertainment Now - Edinburgh Festival Fringe Reviewer – August 2025

- Produced 42 reviews over the month to tight deadlines, whilst working another part time job
- Improved my writing skills as well as attempting review writing for the first time

Personal Projects

‘The Happy Hour’ Website – 2024

- A website concept on WordPress, I co created for our Digital Platforms module
- Designed to highlight sober events in Edinburgh or DIY activities as young people are drinking less

‘Friends on the Field’ Documentary - Sound Producer – 2025

- A 10-minute documentary produced for a module about the new phenomenon Walking Football, following two childhood friends and their relationship through sport
- Oversaw the final edit as well as completed the sound edit, all on Premiere Pro
- Learned to use new equipment and technology such as boom mics
- Established how to think on your feet and troubleshoot as we had limited shoot days

‘The Period Problem’ Radio Documentary – 2026

- This 30-minute radio documentary focuses on the menstrual cycle, mental health and the recent influx of research surrounding women’s health
- Solo project edited on Adobe Premiere Pro and Audition
