What Women Need Extravaganza

(Tallahassee, Fla.) - Sophomore Broadcast Journalism Florida A&M student Brianna Harmon saw fit to give back to a community that has already given her so much. With a passion for helping restore her community and mentoring the youth, the former Miss Freshman of Florida A&M University will be hosting her first Women Empowerment Extravaganza on Saturday, from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. in the Grand Ballroom on the campus of Florida A&M University.

“As a woman I know how hard it is to be great and have success with so many people and words tearing you down” said Harmon

In an initiative for women to join forces and be great as a whole, this event expecting atleast 450 attendees will cater to women ages 18-50 years old. “Through this event I hope to inspire women to believe in themselves and that it is possible to achieve their goals” said Harmon.

What Women Need will benefit attendees in the areas of Beauty, Literature, Finance and Parenting.

The extravaganza will feature motivational speakers, local businesses such as Mandali Hair, Splack Fitness, Kultures Kouture as well as rising gospel artist Briana Babineaux. First 100 people will get swag bags filled with exclusive items.

The event will take place on the campus of Florida A&M University in the Grand Ballroom on January 30, 2016. For further communication, contact by email at WhatWomenNeed16@gmail.com
